Carlyle Place
A Life-Plan Community of Atrium Health Navicent

Welcome Marie Carlson

We are thrilled to have Marie Carlson join Carlyle Place as our Chef. She was born and raised in Phoenix, Arizona before marrying her husband in 2007 with whom she moved to Abilene, Texas. Together they have 1 daughter, age 12, and 2 sons, ages 13 and 15. They moved back to Middle Georgia, after being all over the US due to her husband's stint in the Air Force. He retired last year after 20 years of service and decided to make Georgia home, where he was born.

Marie graduated from the Scottsdale Culinary Institute Le Cordon Bleu in 2004 and has worked as a Chef for 22 years. She has trained under many great Chefs through the years, all from different cultures, such as French, Thai, Korean, Soul Food, Texas BBQ, Indian and much more. Marie is personally of Mexican and Italian Heritage.

She has previously worked in fine dining, hotels, and as a personal Chef. Since moving to Macon, she has worked as a culinary instructor at Helms College as well as her own catering and baking business that she runs out of her home called Mias Creations. Marie has also assisted in the design process and start up of 3 mom and pop restaurants in Georgia, including Woodlands Coffee Roasters and Café in Kathleen, Georgia.

Outside of work Marie's hobbies include baking, DIY book nook dollhouses, and spending as much time with her family as possible. When it comes to her favorite dish, a specific one doesn't come to mind, but due to her Italian Heritage, pasta and bread are always a go to for her.

Marie has a deep love for God and all things culinary and our retirement community, she says, "It's like I have gained so many grandparents since mine are home in Heaven." We are extremely excited to have Marie join our Carlyle Place family.

New Residents: Patty Prince

Written by Kathleen Sheil

When Patty Prince placed her name on the Carlyle Waitlist, she anticipated it would be a few years before she would move. However, six months later, Robin Dance called to say an apartment had become available and thought it would suit Patty's needs. Patty liked the view and the size of the apartment, and moved into East Wing Apartment 2032 in November 2024.

Patty was born in Buffalo, NY, but did not live there very long. When her father served in the Korean War, Patty, her sister Sheila, and her mother lived with her grandmother in Hammondsport, NY. Her father was a career Air Force officer, and the family moved frequently. Some of her fondest memories were the years they lived in Japan. One remarkable occurrence was when a local papa-san rode his bike to their off-base home with a table strapped on his back. He demonstrated that it was made of durable resin and lit a fire on top of the table to prove that the highly glossed surface could not be damaged. Her mother purchased the table. Sixty-five years later, Patty has the beautiful tabletop displayed on one of her walls.

The family moved to Florida when her father was assigned to McCoy Air Force Base. Patty attended high school there and enjoyed school so much that it inspired her to become an English teacher. She earned a Bachelor's Degree from Florida State University and a Master's Degree from Stetson University. Patty remained in Florida, and her career progressed from being a teacher to being a counselor, and finally to becoming a School and District-level Administrator. She worked as an Administrator for 23 years in various schools, in different positions and different counties. One of her assignments was at the Astronaut High School in Titusville FL. Three very memorable events occurred while living there: (1) When the first Space Shuttle was launched from Cape Canaveral in 1981, a fire drill was scheduled so that the entire school could observe this historical event. As significant as it was to witness the launching of the first Space Shuttle, the more important events were: (2) She met a guy on a blind date who later became her husband, which resulted in (3) the birth of her daughter, Nicole. She believes having Nicole was the greatest accomplishment of her life.

When she retired, she decided she wanted to learn how to play golf. She got a "fun" job working in a local golf shop, where one of the benefits was that she could play for free. Patty enjoys golf because it is a great way to be outside, get exercise, and be with people... three of her favorite activities.

Before moving to Carlyle, she was living in Tellico Village, TN. It is a beautiful community with mountain and lake views, and three championship golf courses. Patty put her golf skills to use and played in many tournaments and 18-hole leagues. When Patty's faithful companion, Daisy, passed, she wasn't ready for another dog, but she is a dog person and needed a "dog fix". She volunteered with the Smoky Mountain Service Dogs Organization. This is a non-profit organization that trains specially bred dogs for Veterans and First Responders with service-related disabilities. Patty was a trained handler and would take dogs to her home on the weekends to give them a "home life" experience by walking in the neighborhoods, going to restaurants, and grocery shopping.

Since moving to Carlyle, Patty has taken advantage of many of the activities offered. She is learning to play pickleball, loves the gym and exercise classes, and has taken some art classes. She plays MahJongg with a couple of groups and has enjoyed several bus trips. She volunteers in the Carlyle Recycling Program. Being an avid golfer, she hopes to find some golfing partners. The sounds of a furry, four-legged companion may soon be heard in her home. The reason she selected a walk-out apartment was to eventually have a dog. Patty has met some wonderful Carlyle residents and looks forward to meeting more. Patty is a gracious, interesting, and fun-loving person.

New Residents: Bob & Cathy Dunne

Written by Mary Dempsey

Meet Cathy and Bob Dunne from Bluffton, South Carolina. They have been at Carlyle Place for only a few months and are already active participants in the community.

The couple grew up in Brooklyn, New York. At age 16, after a chance meeting in a luncheonette, they became high school sweethearts. Following graduation, and taking advantage of the GI bill, Bob furthered his education by attending Post University in the evening. Cathy was instrumental in helping Bob complete his education by doing all of the heavy lifting taking care of three very active boys. Bob graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in business majoring in Marketing.

Cathy attended Tunxis College in Connecticut, worked as a Real Estate professional for 28 years and later as an Office Manager in a Veterinary clinic. She is most proud of her role as "Domestic Engineer", running a household and raising three sons.

Bob enjoyed a very successful career working his way through the ranks at AT&T for over forty years retiring as a major Account Manager and both he and Cathy were rewarded with trips to Hawaii, Bermuda, and the Virgin Islands. Bob and Cathy have also travelled to Ireland, France, and have taken numerous cruises to the Caribbean.

Bob was drafted into the US Army and served two years, one stateside and the other (1967-68) in Vietnam. His time was split between the southern half of the country near Saigon and the rest of his time in the very northern part in Dong Ha near the demilitarized zone. While in Vietnam Bob unexpectedly ran into his brother-in-law at the airbase in Da Nang. Cathy and Bob were married in February '67 during a weekend visit while he was still stateside.

A friend of Cathy's had heard about a radio contest sponsored by a New York radio station with a grand prize of an all expense paid trip for the spouse and mother of a service man stationed in Vietnam. Cathys name was entered and she prayed so much for her to be the winner, her knees got calloused. The day of the drawing came and Cathy's name was announced. When the radio station called to give her the good news, she screamed so loud her mother thought she was going into labor. Cathy was 7 months pregnant at the time.

Against medical advice, Cathy flew the twenty-two hours to meet Bob in Bangkok for his R&R (rest and relaxation).

The Dunnes have three sons, two living in Connecticut and one living in Minnesota and three grandchildren ranging in age from 9 to 21. Bob and Cathy travel back to Connecticut during the summer to escape the heat and humidity they have come to know while living in the south.

The Dunnes first learned about Carlyle Place when they attended a presentation given by the Marketing department in Bluffton, SC. Joe Scalzo was the resident representative for Carlyle during that presentation. Encouraged by their former neighbors, the Dempseys, they visited Carlyle and were impressed with the life care program, friendliness of the residents, (Bob swears there is something in the water) overall appearance of Carlyle and the variety of activities offered. In college there is the freshman 20 (gaining weight) and Bob thinks something like that exists at Carlyle.

You are apt to meet up with Bob & Cathy at the gym, in a Resident Life class, or at a Carlyle volunteer project. Having taught paper craft classes (making greeting cards) in Bluffton, Cathy jumped right into the paper craft classes offered at Carlyle.

Don't miss the opportunity to give them a warm welcome, and I know many of you already have. If you haven't had the chance yet, you'll be glad you did.

AI Scam

A scam using artificial intelligence voice messages to impersonate senior U.S. officials is targeting individuals to steal personal account information and illicitly obtain money.

The incidents have been reported since April with “malicious actors” claiming to be senior U.S. federal or state government officials and their contacts, the FBI reports.

The scam, known as smishing or vishing, involves these actors sending text messages and artificial intelligence generated voice messages to claim they are these officials to gain access to personal accounts.

One way the actors do this is by sending the person a “malicious link” in a separate messaging platform that could present malware or hyperlinks that direct individuals to sites that steal login information like usernames and passwords.

“Access to personal or official accounts operated by U.S. officials could be used to target other government officials or other associates and contacts by using trusted contact information they obtain,” the agency wrote. “Contact information acquired through social engineering schemes could be used to impersonate contacts to elicit information or funds.”

When spotting a fake message, the FBI says it’s important to:

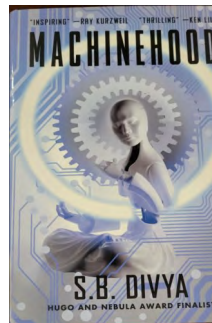

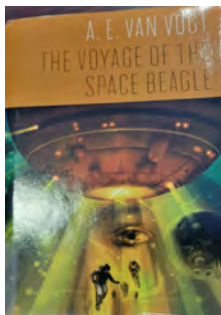

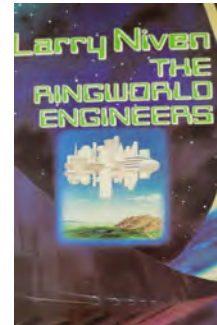

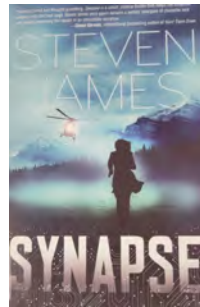

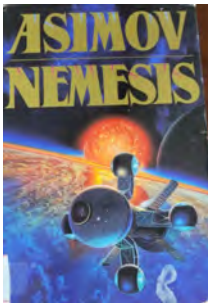

- Verify the identity of the person who’s calling or sending a text or voice message. Before responding research the originating number, organization and person claiming to be the contact. The independently identify the phone number for the person and call to verify the authenticity.
- Carefully examine the email address, messaging contact information including phone numbers, URLs and spelling used in any correspondence or communications. Scammers often use slight differences to deceive the person and gain their trust. For instance, scammers incorporate publicly available photographs in text messages, use minor alterations in names and contact information or use AI-generated voices to masquerade as a known contact.
- Look for subtle imperfections in images and videos like distorted hands or feet, unrealistic racial features, indistinct or irregular faces, unrealistic accessories like glasses or jewelry, inaccurate shadows, watermarks, voice call lag time, voice matching and unnatural movements.
- Listen closely to the tone and word choice to distinguish between a legitimate phone call or voice message from a known contact and AI-generated voice cloning as they can sound nearly identical.
- Never share sensitive information or an associate’s contact information with people that have only been contacted online or over the phone.
- Do not sent money, gift cards, cryptocurrency or other assets to people that seem unfamiliar or have only been met online or over the phone.
- Do not click on any links in an email or text message until the person can independently confirm the sender’s identity.

Many thanks to Fred Reese for spending most of his weekend putting the final touches on Carlyle's pickle ball courts! After scraping, smoothing and cleaning the concrete-like spectator pad, the final coat of paint was applied and it looks GREAT!

Thank you, thank you, Fred!

I SPY - June 2025

"I Spy" showcases a resident who makes a difference in our community, someone who brightens other's days or someone who has done something extra special to benefit others.

I spy...a resident who spends many hours every week keeping the library running smoothly. Pat McMahon is a professional librarian who has brought her expertise to the Carlyle Library. She pulls books that are no longer circulating and takes them to Friends of the Library Bookstore, where they are sold to profit local libraries. She also purchases gently used books for our Carlyle collection, as well as keeps up with paperwork, tracking volunteer hours and tallying the circulation of numbers, submits invoices, enters books into the inventory and makes it a priority to get the right books into the right hands of our residents. Pat takes books to the Healthcare Neighborhoods on a regular basis so that all residents have an opportunity to read a good book!

Carlyle Place Drama Society

Hangin' With Seniors at Seabreeze Retirement Home!

Stop immediately what you are doing!! Add Monday, June 23, 3:30-4:30, Carlyle Place Grande to your phone, day planner, calendar, etc.! You are not going to want to miss The Carlyle Place Drama Society's First Season, First Episode of Hangin' with Seniors at Seabreeze Retirement Home! This is your opportunity to watch, listen, ponder, and laugh about when YOU reach senior retirement age.

Watch your young Carlyle friends portray senior folks living in sunny Florida in this retirement home: Agnes Scott, Linda Degelmann, Demme Pluta, Rae Scott, Ann Rambusch, Jane Winston, Jody Lewis, Tony Zelonis, Michael Qualls, Laurie Shaw, Charles Lewis, Bill Scott, Paul Evans, Rich McKee, Ian Davies, and "Bingo" Bob Pluta.

You are going to be so enamored of this raucous, yet realistic presentation that you'll grow impatient waiting for Season One, Episode Two, later in August.

So, come hang with our "Bickersons," Ed and Margaret. Observe a weekend road trip with four new residents, and their live Siri (Paul Evans); the four of them just want to get away from the "home," and get to know one another better. Meet Ed and Sid Whitman who think they are in need of marriage counseling! Be prepared to laugh till you ache.

The characters portrayed in this production are not real. Any resemblance to yourself, or someone you know, is purely coincidental.

Call for Your Favorite Hats

In August, the 2nd Floor Art Gallery will display your favorite hats. If you have a hat or hats that you love and would like to display in the Art Gallery, please contact Cele Minshew at 478-405-4533 or Celeste.Minshew@advocatehealth.org. Hats will be labeled and returned to their owners after the month ends.

Newsletter Submissions

Is there something interesting about you that you think other residents would like to know? Have you recently snapped a photo of something special around Carlyle Place? We want your submissions for the Chronicle! Send them to Elizabeth Fletcher at Elizabeth.Fletcher@atriumhealth.org.

Joining The Carlyle Community

Written by Ty Ivey

Early this year, RAC began contributing articles to the Carlyle Chronicle. This contribution is my last as president of RAC. My comments today are more personal than RAC generated.

I wonder where the new residents are. I know that the war of boxes is a battle not quickly won, but every resident has responsibilities to himself and the community. To be a part of the Carlyle community it's important to be well informed. How do residents stay informed? Probably the best way is your attendance at Have You Heard (HUH). It is here that you will be kept up-to-date on all the important Carlyle happenings and it's a great place to get answers to your questions. I will be looking for new faces every Tuesday morning in the Grande at 11 o'clock.

Carlyle offers other ways to be well informed. Be sure to read the Carlyle Chronicle and once settled, consider joining a resident life activity or volunteer for a committee that may interest you. Carlyle offers many ways to be informed, to become active, to make new friends and enjoy the Carlyle experience.

I have enjoyed the opportunity to serve RAC for the last three years and wish us all a good future. See you at HUH!

Plastic Bags

Written by Jane Winston

Whether yours be wadded, rolled or folded, Carlyle Place asks that you leave them with Dalisha in Resident Life. After that, volunteers from Carlyle gather to reinforce them by putting one bag into another bag on the first Thursday of each month at 2:30 pm in Activity Room A. After that is accomplished, a Carlyle volunteer delivers them to St. Peter Claver where volunteers there put items in the bags and other volunteers deliver them to some 400 families in the local area.

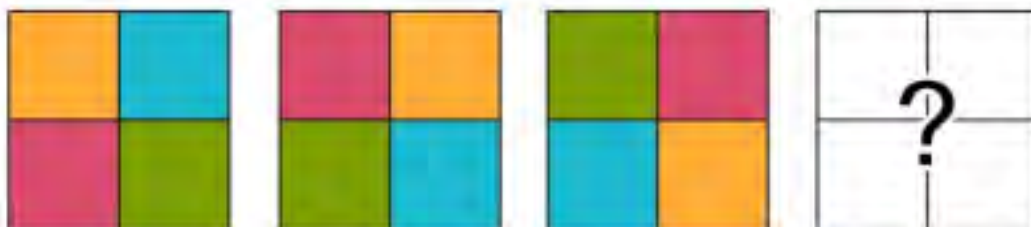

Volunteers count! Plastic bags are needed! This is such a simple way to help out.
